LEGION MEN TO CELEBRATE HERE THURSDAY NOV. 11

OLD FIDDLERS CAPTURE EARS OF RADIO LAND

AMERICA HEARS BIG FOUR OF MILAM OVER BROADCASTING STATION

Radio Land pricked up its ears Monday night and the hearts of good Americans throughout the Country warmed with admiration as the "Big Four" fiddlers from Milam County gave a concert over radio from the station at Waco.

The big four are. Uncle Mike James, champion Texas fiddler; Tom Choate, vice champion; J. L. Clinton and T. A Howell. The fiddlers had the assistance of Mrs. T. A. Howell at the piano, Ray Mabry and Will Schiller at the banjo and guitar.

The program began about nine o'clock and continued for more than 30 minutes and was closed amid a flood of requests coming in from all over the United States, with Texas contributing its share, for numbers the time would not permit to be rendered.

A number of selections were played and dedicated to Cameron people. Almost the entire city was listening in on the program and many telegrams and messages were received over long distance telephone.

J. L. Clinton, a fiddler of great renoun, did not take part in the state contest here last July, having directed the program, was a great favorite with the radio fans Monday night. Mr. Howell did not compete in the contest but thrilled radio land with his music.

Uncle Mike was given the place of honor at the microphone, being the champion. He was followed often by Mr. Choate whose fiddling has electrified many hearers over the country.

So insistent was the demand for request numbers that the program was given more time than was originally planned and the station was closed amid a flood of telegrams and phone calls asking that selections be played. The big four did not have time to carry out the set program as dedication numbers were numerous.

The station wants the fiddlers back again soon and it is likely that another program will be arranged for them.

The program date was arranged by Edgar Wilson who took an active interest also in the state contest held here under the auspices of the American Legion Mr. Wilson has the thanks of the people for having arranged this program.

GILLIS WILL ADDRESS BAPTIST BIBLE CLASS

STORY OF JOSHUA WILL BE EX. SUNDAY MORNING

W. G. Gillis, Presbyterian layman and Bible student, will address the Bible class at the Baptist Sunday school Sunday morning.

The class of which F. B. Cable is teacher, has arranged a schedule of addresses to be delivered by prominent laymen of Cameron and this program was extended through the winter and possibly longer.

John Ryan, secretary of the class, is sending out invitations to all members of the class and others to be present for the lesson on Sunday morning. The class meets in the Sunday school building adjoining the main auditorium. A large attendance is expected.

The class is completing a study of the history of the children of Egypt on their way out of the land of Pharoah to the Canaan country. The lesson Sunday will deal with the early leadership of Joshua who succeeded Moses as leader of the Israelites.

OH, MIN!

Andy Gump is in the limelight again.

This time as a candidate for Lieutenant Governor against vote at Cameron for that high Barry Miller. He received one vote.

At Gause his strength held fast. He received one vote for representative against Sam Hefley. Andy has always had a following in Cameron and Milam County.

BIG COTTON CROP NOT YET GATHERED; RAINS

ESTIMATE 70,000 BALE YIELD IN COUNTY FOR 1926 COTTON CROP

Only seven Texas counties have ginned more cotton than Milam from the crop of 1926.

According to the report of the federal bureau of commerce there was ginned in Milam County up to October 18 a total of 46,091 bales.

The other counties of Texas ginning more than Milam are San Patricio Ellis, Williamson, Hidalgo, McLennan, Nueces and Cameron.

Due to the excessive rains the crop is not yet gathered in Milam. The estimate is that the county will produce 70,000 bales and it is also estimated that about 50,000 bales have been ginned up to the first of November.

There remains some 20,000 bales yet to be gathered if the 70,000 estimate is correct.

HUTCHERSON COMPLETES THREE YEARS AT CHURCH

BAPTIST PASTOR GIVES ACCOUNTING OF WORK WITH CHURCH IN CAMERON

Completing three years as pastor of the Baptist church Rev. E. S. Hutcherson gave an account of his stewardship as pastor here in a report Sunday morning.

The church has made great progress under his leadership as shown by the statistics.

Total additions for the three years is 358 of which number 100 were men.

The pastor took up his work here in November 1923 and from that date through December there were 11 additions. In 1924 there were 97 additions and in 1925 there were 159 additions. Up to date in 1926 there have been 91 additions, making a grand total of 358.

Compared with two previous years the work of Hutcherson stands out as commendable in every way. In 1922 there were 54 additions in 1923 there were 50 additions.

When the pastor came to Cameron the church had a debt of $6000 and this has been paid and the church now has at all times a fine cash balance in the bank.

The work here has established Rev. Hutcherson as one of the leading ministers of the state and he has had many calls to other places. The contributions of the church has placed the church 28th among Texas churches.

GRADY HOUSTON BUYS CONFECTIONERY HERE AND HAS TAKEN CHARGE

Grady Houston has purchased the confectionery operated by Chas. Spratt and has taken charge.

The business was established many years ago by John M. Tucker and has changed hands a number of times during the past several years. Mr. Houston has been engaged in a similar business for a number of years and has been successful in his business.

Mr. Houston has taken over the management of the business and announces that he will carry a full and complete line of candies, fruits and nuts, making a special preparation for the Christmas holiday trade.

The place will continue to sell cold drinks and maintain a first class fountain.

Mr. Houston in this new business venture has the good wishes of his host of friends for continued success.

Ma and Jim Both To Run For Senate Says Will Rogers

Austin, Nov. 2.—Had dinner in the governor's mansion tonight with Ma and Jim. Got just as much to eat as I did at Calvin's. There are two senate jobs in '28. Jim and Ma are going to run for both of them, so they won't have one salary between them.

Had lunch with Dan Moody and have date for dinner with him at mansion next year. This is the town Colonel House first gave his advice in. More men will be elected tonight through good counting than were elected today through voting.

Your for reasonable honesty in politics.

Will Rogers.

Court Will Appoint Constable and Count Ballots Cast Tues.

Judge Jeff T. Kemp has called a meeting of the commissioners court to convene here Monday.

The court will appoint a constable at Jones Prairie to succeed R. H. Jones deceased. In all probability the court will appoint J. E. Lester who was elected in the election Tuesday, his name having been written on the ballot by voters following the death of Mr. Jones.

It was estimated that less than 2000 votes were cast in the county on last Tuesday in the general election.

DEMOCRATS HAVE LITTLE OPPOSITION IN COUNTY

VOTE ABOUT ONE-FOURTH OF PRIMARY STRENGTH RETURNS SHOW

With less than 2,000 votes cast in the general election Tuesday the Democratic ticket came in winner by an almost unanimous vote, the Republicans polling the smallest number of votes known in recent years in the county.

The largest Republican vote cast at any box was at Buckholts where fourteen votes were cast for that ticket.

Cameron led the vote in the democratic victory with 351 votes cast, the Republicans receiving 8 of that number.

Thirty-one boxes had been returned to county judge Kemp up to Wednesday night. On the basis of these returns it was estimated that about 2000 votes had been cast in the county. This will show less than one-fourth of the primary vote.

Rockdale cast the second largest vote, Moody receiving 153 and Haines the Republican, 12 votes.

On the face of returns from the boxes it appears that all amendment have been carried in the county by a substantial majority

All Right to Kill Says Frank Norris; Preacher Boasts He Did Not Sin

Ft. Worth, Nov. 3.—A fundamentalist pastor's version of the commandment "Thou shalt not Kill," stood out today as one of the developments in the Dr. J. Frank Norris murder trial which yesterday was transferred to Austin on a change of venue.

While attorneys were conferring late yesterday on the selection of a trial city, Norris, who is charged with the murder of Dexter Elliott Chipps, leaned against the wall of the court room and, surrounded by newspaper men and spectators, philosophized on killing, libertines, gambling, character reading, the scriptures, and a variety of subjects.

"How do you reconcile the killing of Chipps with the commandment, 'Thou shalt not kill?' a reporter asked him.

"That is not difficult," the pastor replied.

Killing Must Be With Hate

"The New Testament commandment against killing means killing with hate. The reason my shooting of Chipps was not murder is because my bullets were not winged with hate. There was no hate back of them. The shooting was only an incident in a long continuity of events. You can see by the evidence already given in this case what was the nature of those events."

The pastor revealed the means by which he will pick his jury.

"I will depend on my intuition largely in picking men," he said. "That is, I call it intuition. I don't know what it is, not being a psychologist. It's just something in me that warns me I guess."

"Did you see any body on the venire you would have rejected in that manner," he was asked.

"How To Pick A Jury"

"Certainly. I hadn't been in the court room five minutes when I had picked three men whom I would not let on the jury under any circumstances."

"Did you know them?"

"Not at all. It was the first time I had ever seen them. One of them sat with his head bowed forward looking up through his eyebrows all the time. I wouldn't pick a man like that at all."

Norris then went on to say that he could pick out a poker player from a crowd by watching his eyes and actions.

"Another sort of man I would not let on my jury would be one of a lecherous disposition," he continued. "I could tell them easily. Put a row of 2 men down anywhere and I can pick out the libertines in a moment. If a pretty woman walks by, the libertines will look at her legs first, then at the rest of her body."

Bible Story Recalled

Asked whom he considered had won the first battle of strategy in the case, he said:

"To those of you who know your Bibles, I suggest that you read again the story of Haman and Mordecai."

The pastor confirmed a reportorial guess that "the story of Hamon and Mordecai is the one where Hamon got hung on the gibbet he had prepared for Mordecai."

Uncle Mike Champion Fiddler Proves Good Motorist As Well

Uncle Mike James, champion fiddler of Texas, is a good motorist and proved it Monday night on his return to Cameron with Edgar Wilson.

After the radio program at Waco the party started for Cameron. The car driven by Mr. Wilson was held fast by mud in a section of the road beyond Rosebud and Uncle Mike laid his fiddle aside and despite his 73 years he helped the car out of the mire. Climbing back into his seat and while exhibiting a good smear of mud on his feet and trousers Mr. Wilson taking some attention away from the wheel to inquire how Uncle Mike was faring, lost control on the slick road and the car was run into a ditch by the roadside.

Despairing of getting the car out the youngsters came into Rosebud and spent the night, returning to Cameron early Tuesday. Some anxiety was felt for the safety of the men when they did not return that night.

MOODY GETS ALL BUT 8 VOTES IN CAMERON

VOTE IS SMALL BUT DEMOCRATIC STRENGTH IS DEMONSTRATED

Dan Moody, the young democratic leader and nominee for governor in the primaries was given an almost unanimous vote in Cameron along with other officials elected in the November election Tuesday.

Col Harvey H. Haines, republican candidate for governor, received only 8 votes in the city.

The vote was light throughout the county as shown by 30 boxes on which returns were made to Judge Jef fT. Kemp of the county court.

A total of 354 votes were cast at the Cameron box, the republican candidates receiving 8 votes and the Democrats 327.

There was some mutilation of the ballot but this was not extensive.

The vote as cast this year shows a greater loyalty to the ticket than in 1924 when democrats in large numbers bolted, in the city of Cameron Dr. Butte receiving several hundred votes.

At Cameron as well as over the county the vote was about one-fourth to one-third of the vote cast in the primary election.

Baptist Church Revival To Start Here Sunday

Rev. W. R. White of the Southwestern Seminary at Fort Worth will begin an eight day church revival Sunday morning at the Baptist church.

The church will hold this meeting as a special series of services for the membership of the church. The Rev. Mr. White is one of the leading preachers of the seminary and the pastor here feels fortunate in securing his services for the meeting.

The Messenger, church paper, carries full announcement of the meeting and elsewhere in this edition will be found an advertisement telling of the revival.

The pastor is anxious for a big attendance during this meeting of church members and indications are it will be one of the most successful meetings ever held at the church.

JIM LESTER ELECTED CONSTABLE IN VOTE TUESDAY; HAS SERVED

Jim Lester of Jones Prairie was elected constable in the general election on Tuesday to succeed Richard Houston Jones, deceased.

The name Mr .Lester was written on the ballot. The name of Mr. Jones was printed on the ballot having been the nominee of the party for the office. Mr. Jones died on Sunday before the election on Tuesday.

Mr. Lester received 103 votes He will in all probability be named as constable by the court on Monday when it meets to make an appointment and to canvas the ballot for the election.

LEGION TO CELEBRATE HERE ARMISTICE DAY

T. S. HENDERSON TO DELIVER ADDRESS FOR EX-SOLDIERS HERE

Plans are in readiness for the Armistice day program at 10 o'clock at the court house on Thursday, November 11.

T. S. Henderson will deliver the principal address for the occasion.

The ceremony will be a simple observance of the day with some music, prayer and song, honoring those who gave their lives in the late war for America.

At noon the soldiers will be served a dinner in the park or in the building formerly occupied by the Avriett store.

A. F. Mitchell, in charge of the dinner will make all necessary arrangements for the big feed which has been made an annual feature of the program.

The celebration will close with a big dance at night on the streets. In the afternoon a football game will be played at Rockdale between Cameron and Rockdale.

There will be a band concert at 10 o'clock on the court house lawn to begin the exercises for the day.

Hundreds of ex-service men are expected to be here for the exercises and for the dinner.

French Lick Springs Orchestra For Street Dance Here Nov. 11

A famous 7 piece orchestra from French Lick Springs, Indiana, will play for the big Legion dance to be held here on the night of November 11.

The orchestra is known as the "Midnight Serenaders." The dance is an annual event of the celebration and this year will be in charge of Monk Alford.

The dance will be held on the streets adjoining the court house if the weather permits and inside, probably at Wayside if the weather is unsuited for an outdoor dance.

The dance will be held at night following ceremonies in the court house in the morning and a free dinner for the service men at noon in the park or in the building formerly occupied by the Avriett grocery.

Go Republican Two Milam Boxes

Two Milam County boxes, Gay Hill and Bushdale, went Republican in the governor's race but voting solidly Democratic in the other state races.

Bushdale cast 15 votes and Gay Hill cast 14. The vote is as follows on the race for governor:

Bushdale
Haines	12
Moody	3
Gay Hill
Haines	11
Moody	2

M. A. Smith the socialist candidate received 1 vote at Gay Hill. There were 14 republican votes cast at Buckholts and 8 in Cameron.

PIONEER OF WILLIAMSON CO. DIES IN AUSTIN HOSPITAL FOLLOWING OPERATION

R. O. Humble, manager of the Mutual Lumber Company, here was called to Austin on Wednesday of last week by the death of his father, W. K. Humble, aged 75, and a resident of Liberty Hill, in Williamson county, who was taken to St. David's Hospital at Austin a few days before for an operation. The immediate cause of his death was pneumonia which developed later.

The funeral service was held at Leander, his former home on Thursday, where interment was also made. He leaves two sons and three daughters and many personal friends at Leander and Liberty Hill where he spent many years of his life .Surviving children are O. R. Humble of Thorndale, F. H. Humble of Leander, Mrs. R. B. Hall of Leander, Mrs. E. G Bryson of Liberty Hill and Mrs. R. Williams of Bertram. His wife preceded him to the grave more than a year ago. R. O. Humble has the sympathy of many friends here in his sorrow.—Thorndale Champion.

AUTO ACCIDENT RESULTS IN DEATH OF SALTY MAN

Wm. Duett, aged 23, son of A. T. Duett, living near Salty, was instantly killed last Sunday evening while en route to Rockdale from the oil fields near that city, where he was employed. The funeral services were held at Salty Monday afternoon where interment took place following the services and many friends attended the service. From meager accounts reaching this office it seems that the truck on which the deceased was riding was racing with another truck going in the same direction, and young Mr. Duett, who was said to be standing on the running board of the truck, either fell from his position or jumped just as the two trucks were mounting a small bridge, and he was ground to death between the truck and the banister of the bridge. One leg was broken and deep gashes were cut in his forehead, under his chin and back of his head, producing immediate death. Many friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family and the many friends.—Thorndale Champion.

COTTON PALACE TO OFFER FREE SHOWS

Exposition at Waco Adopts New Method of Coliseum Presentation. No Charge for Opera.

Waco, Texas.—With the opening of the 1926 Cotton Palace Exposition at Waco, on October 23, there will be introduced an innovation never before attempted by any similar exposition.

This innovation, new in the history of expositions, is that no charge whatever will be made this year to any of the attractions in the coliseum. This departure, coming on the heels of the announcement that the great Thaviu band and grand opera organization would be the attraction during the first week, will no doubt be welcome news to Cotton Palace patrons throughout central Texas.

"We have decided on this step in order that patrons of the Cotton Palace may have the pleasure of witnessing the biggest show in America, and at a price the directors believe will attract people to the exposition from all over Texas," President Crawford said in making the announcement. "When it is remembered that 50c admission paid at the front gate will enable the purchaser to witness every coliseum event throughout the 16 days, some conception may be had of what this innovation really means. This, too, in the face of the fact that special effort has been put forth this year to bring to the coliseum a series of entertainments surpassing anything that we have ever before attempted."

Present Eight Separate Shows.

The Thaviu grand opera performances alone are $2 to $5 attractions everywhere. At the Cotton Palace Thaviu and his grand opera stars will be heard in eight separate and distinct programs without any cost whatever other than the front gate or season ticket admission price. This condition, coupled with the further fact that Thaviu introduces into his grand opera programs parts of as many as three operas, with separate and distinct scenery for each, leads the directors to believe that the Cotton Palace for 1926 will go down history as having furnished to its patrons the best free entertainment—and more of it—than has ever before been offered anywhere at any time.

The Thaviu cast, all told, includes 60 people, all of them artists chosen by Thaviu for their adaptability to his conceptions of grand opera, the individual musical numbers, the band and orchestra and the various entertainment numbers which he has established as a part of his programs, all of them having proven extremely popular with the American public.

On the two Sunday afternoons of the first week the great operatic spectacle, "The Birth of the Messiah," will be the attraction, which promises to be unique in the annals of musical events in the Southwest. On each week night of the first week Thaviu will present the outstanding operas of the time, his programs often including the most appealing parts of as many as three operas in one evening. For every change Thaviu has the most elaborate scenery, his reputation having extended far and wide as offering the most beautiful scenic effects on the American stage. At each and every performance Thaviu presents his specially trained grand opera orchestra, which comes heralded as among the most proficient musical companies ever gotten together in one organization.

On the first two Sunday nights of the Cotton Palace, and also every afternoon of the first week, Thaviu's famed band will be heard in the coliseum and from every corner of the globe comes the word that the Thaviu band is among the best in America. Like his grand opera programs Thaviu introduces into his band entertainment innovations that at once make them popular. It has often been said that he presents the greatest array of stringed instrument artists and vocalists of any of the well known musical band leaders. For the week-night performances he presents eight captivating ballet artists.

HIGHWAY WORK THROUGH BOTTOM COMPLETED

J. L. Adams with his teams and men, working under direction of maintenance supervisor Batte of Cameron, has finished the work of grading and graveling the Brushy Bottom on Highway No. 43 east of Thorndale and the road is now in the best condition it has been in a number of years, and the people of this community are grateful to all having a part in this work, including members of the Thorndale Commercial Club who made many trips to Austin in this behalf, the highway department officials and the Ferguson administration.

The community is especially indebted to Mr. Batte, the maintenance supervisor, for the extra work done on the highway running through town to the Williamson county line, the expense of which was paid out of the maintenance fund allotted to this portion of the highway.—Thorndale Champion.

SAN GABRIEL FARMER HAS 3 RIBS BROKEN

While milking a cow at his home on Friday night of last week W. T. Johnson was knocked unconscious for a few minutes and sustained three broken ribs on the right breast by the cow he was milking kicking him.

Mr. Johnson said as he sat down to milk he noticed some prickly pears fastened on the legs of the cow and he attempted to pull these out and the cow responded with a swing to his breast with her foot, knocking him down breathless and unconscious. Consciousness returned in a couple of minutes or less time and he managed to attract a negro woman's attention as she was passing the lot who reported his condition to Mrs. Johnson and the family. Mr. Johnson has suffered great pain because of the injury and he fears serious complications may follow.—Thorndale Champion.

MEXICAN KILLED WHEN GUN ACCIDENTLY DISCHARGED TUESDAY

Pedro Martinez, Mexican, was accidentiy shot and killed about 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the Camarillo cafe on N. Main street.

Fritz Camarillo, proprietor of the cafe, stated that he was showing a pistol to Camarillo when the gun was accidently discharged, the ball entering at the mouth and coming out at the lower part of the back.

A negro man was the only witness to the accident, but disappeared quickly and could not be found.

After viewing the remains Judge Jones decided the shooting was accidental.—Calvert Tribune.

Lightning Knocks Negro To Knees In Henington's Cafe

During the rains and electrical storm which visited Thorndale and this vicinity last Friday morning lightening struck the light wires of the Henington Cafe and put out some lights, burned out a fan and either knocked a negro down or scared him so bad he fell on the floor of the colored dining room at the rear of the kitchen of the cafe. The negro was not hurt and no material damage was done to the building. Reports from the country further south of town indicate that the wind was even stronger in that section. Big trees were uprooted and considerable damage to the unpicked cotton is reported.

CAMERON A. & M. FANS REGRET DEATH CADET

INVESTIGATION PROMISED INTO DEATH OF DALLAS YOUTH ON FOOTBALL FIELD

Cameron supporters of A. & M. College regret the unfortunate occurence at Waco on last Saturday when Chas. S. Sessums of Dallas, student and Senior at A. & M. College was killed in a fight which followed when students of Baylor and A. & M. College became embroiled in a riot.

Supporters of the Aggie shere hope that justice will be done in the settlement of the affair. Deep sympathy is expressed over the death of the young man.

College Station, Nov. 1.—A thorough investigation of the Baylor A. & M. student affray that resulted in the death of Charles M. Sessums, Dallas A. & M. student, was begun Monday by President Walton, of A. and M., the deans of the college and Leiutenant Colonel F. H. Turner, commandant at A. and M.

President Walton announced that until this investigation had been completed and he had an opportunity to confer with President Brooks of Baylor, he would defer issuing an official statement.

"It is our desire to do justice to both institutions in regard to the matter. Until the affair can be gone into thoroughly and all details sifted it is obvious that it would not only be unwise but unfair to issue a public statement. After the investigation and a conference with President Brooks it may be that we will issue a joint statement," President Walton declared.

Waco, Nov. 1.—President S. P. Brooks of Baylor University and President T. O. Walton of Texas A. and M. College are to have a conference relative to the pitched battle between halves of the Baylor-Aggie football game Saturday, which resulted in the fatal injury of Charles M. Sessums, 23, Dallas A. and M. cadet.

Walton readily accepted Brooks' suggestion that a conference be held the Baylor president stated after a long distance telephone conversation with the A. and M. executive. Date and place of the conference have not been selected.

City and county officers conferred Monday, intimating that no official action will be taken, in view of the general misunderstanding which surrounded the incident.

Remains of young Sessums, who died Sunday in a sanitarium, were shipped Sunday night to Dallas.

Justice of the Peace R. B. Stanford held an inquest Monday, returning a verdict that Sessums came to his death from a fractured skull, "caused by a party or parties unknown."

The cadet's death threw a pall over Baylor's celebration of its 20-9 victory. In the time allotted for student demonstrations between the halves of the game, an auto truck carrying some Baylor girls was driven across the field. When a cadet rushed to the car and one of the girls fell out, or was dragged to the ground—as conflicting eye witness versions of the incident have it—a Baylor student clashed with the cadet. In an instant, student of both schools left the bleachers and plunged into a pitched battle.

Only the playing of the Star Spangled Banner by the Aggie Band, led by its quick-witted band leader, stopped the fighting, for the cadets were forced to stand at attention. By the time the last chords of the anthem had been played, leaders of the Baylor contingent had reassembled their students in the stands.

From the mass of sticks, chairs and torn clothing on the ground after the struggle, the body of young Sessums was picked up and taken to a hospital.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 1.—Funeral services will be held here Friday for Leiutenant Charles M. Sessums of the A. and M. cadet corps, who died as result of injuries suffered during a fight at the football game between A. and M. and Baylor at Waco Saturday. The body is now lying in state at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Sessums.

Long lines of his old school mates filed silently by Monday and meanlence are being received by the parwhile hundreds of messages of condoents.

essums received a scalp wound and a fracture at the base of the skull. He never wholly regained consciousness after being struck on the head. Physicians believed Saturday night, he would recover but he failed to rally and died early Sunday before the arrival of his parents.

A complete investigation into the youth's death will be demanded by theboy's father.

Mr. Sessums said Monday he would ask the faculty of both schools o make an investigation and if this wa not done he would start one himself

Let reverence for the laws be breathed by every American mother to the lisping babe that prattles on her lap; let it be taught in schools, in seminaries, and in colleges; let it be written in primers, spelling-books, and in almanacs. let it be preached from the pulpit, proclaimed in legislative halls, and enforced in courts of justice. And, in short let it become the political religion of the nation; and let the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the grave and the gay of all sexes and tongues and colors and conditions, sacrifice unceasingly upon its altars.

—Abraham Lincoln.

COTTON PALACE TO OFFER FREE SHOWS

Exposition at Waco Adopts New Method of Coliseum Presentation. No Charge for Opera.

Waco, Texas.—With the opening of the 1926 Cotton Palace Exposition at Waco, on October 23, there will be introduced an innovation never before attempted by any similar exposition.

This innovation, new in the history of expositions, is that no charge whatever will be made this year to any of the attractions in the coliseum. This departure, coming on the heels of the announcement that the great Thaviu band and grand opera organization would be the attraction during the first week, will no doubt be welcome news to Cotton Palace patrons throughout central Texas.

"We have decided on this step in order that patrons of the Cotton Palace may have the pleasure of witnessing the biggest show in America, and at a price the directors believe will attract people to the exposition from all over Texas," President Crawford said in making the announcement. "When it is remembered that 50c admission paid at the front gate will enable the purchaser to witness every coliseum event throughout the 16 days, some conception may be had of what this innovation really means. This, too, in the face of the fact that special effort has been put forth this year to bring to the coliseum a series of entertainments surpassing anything that we have ever before attempted."

Present Eight Separate Shows.

The Thaviu grand opera performances alone are $2 to $5 attractions everywhere. At the Cotton Palace Thaviu and his grand opera stars will be heard in eight separate and distinct programs without any cost whatever other than the front gate or season ticket admission price. This condition, coupled with the further fact that Thaviu introduces into his grand opera programs parts of as many as three operas, with separate and distinct scenery for each, leads the directors to believe that the Cotton Palace for 1926 will go down history as having furnished to its patrons the best free entertainment—and more of it—than has ever before been offered anywhere at any time.

The Thaviu cast, all told, includes 60 people, all of them artists chosen by Thaviu for their adaptability to his conceptions of grand opera, the individual musical numbers, the band and orchestra and the various entertainment numbers which he has established as a part of his programs, all of them having proven extremely popular with the American public.

On the two Sunday afternoons of the first week the great operatic spectacle, "The Birth of the Messiah," will be the attraction, which promises to be unique in the annals of musical events in the Southwest. On each week night of the first week Thaviu will present the outstanding operas of the time, his programs often including the most appealing parts of as many as three operas in one evening. For every change Thaviu has the most elaborate scenery, his reputation having extended far and wide as offering the most beautiful scenic effects on the American stage. At each and every performance Thaviu presents his specially trained grand opera orchestra, which comes heralded as among the most proficient musical companies ever gotten together in one organization.

On the first two Sunday nights of the Cotton Palace, and also every afternoon of the first week, Thaviu's famed band will be heard in the coliseum and from every corner of the globe comes the word that the Thaviu band is among the best in America. Like his grand opera programs Thaviu introduces into his band entertainment innovations that at once make them popular. It has often been said that he presents the greatest array of stringed instrument artists and vocalists of any of the well known musical band leaders. For the week-night performances he presents eight captivating ballet artists.

SOCIETY NEWS

SUNSHINE CLUB PARTY

On last Friday afternoon Mrs. F. S. Lesovsky entertained the members of her Sunday School class at her home on Hefley Heights. This is a quarterly social event for the Sunshine Sisters of this class.

The house was beautifully decorated with yellow and red flowers which were tastefully arranged in floor baskets and vases. Everywhere black cats and Halloween suggestions were in evidence. Covered lights made the scene "real spooky." Little Miss Frances Lesovsky, dressed as a ghost, greeted the guests upon their arrival. A merry time was had with stunts and playing funny games. Sunshine Sisters for the next quarter were chosen. In conclusion, the hostess served hot chocolate and cake.

RICHTER-ZALESKY

The marriage of Miss Nona Richter and J. L. Zalesky, both of Buckholts, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock at Cameron, Rev. H. G. Kenney reading the impressive ring ceremony.

The wedding took place at the home of Ye Portrait Shoppe where the rooms had been beautifully decorated for the occasion. Queen's wreath was used to festoon the curtains and baskets of flowers were placed at either side, making a beautiful setting for the happy occasion.

The bride wore a lovely tan dress with black fur trimming and the groom a suit of dark gray. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Richter and Mr. Zalesky, the son of F. J. Zalesky.

Both families are prominent farmers of Buckholts and have resided there for many years.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Zalesky will return to Buckholts where they expect to make their home.

J. D. LEWIS TO PLAY AT WAYSIDE FRIDAY NIGHT

J. D. Lewis will play for the weekly dance at Wayside Friday night. The music of Mr. Lewis is continually improving and the dances are ever growing more popular.

The Halloween Frolic and Dance last Friday night drew a large crowd and was one of the best dances that has ever been held in this part of the state. Guy Draper played for it and the music was fine. The dance lovers will welcome a return engagement from him.

The program of Degree of Honor Cameron Lodge 54, under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Sparks Bridgeman, State organizer, given by home talent in the K. C. Hall on Monday evening was enjoyed by all. The program follows:

Violin Solo, Frances Hobson.

Vocal Solo, Miss Evelyn McCall with Mrs. Joe Casey at the piano.

Charleston Dance, Ruth Hobson.

Scottish Dance, Gladys Kinard, Edwina Lovick, Allene Owen, Marjorie Dusek, Julia Mae McCollum and Dorothy Lesovsky.

Tableaux—

Constance—A madonna of the Hills, Katherine Monroe, posing as Madonna with her doll was very pretty. Miss Evelyn McCall sang "Sweet and Low."

Purity, was represented by three little girls dressed in snow white carrying white flowers, Mary Frances White, Zora Clark Wilkerson and Ruth Hobson.

The Protected Home—Mrs. Allie Kinard and children, Zora Clark Wilkerson, Mary Frances White and Tom White.

The Unprotected Home—Mrs Hattie McCall and Adeline Lovick giving the reading, "Daddy, Why Did You Not Insure?"

Earth's Last Picture, was posed by Judge and Mrs. English. This was a most impressive scene ,and especially so because Judge English was celebrating his 82nd birthday. This represented the meaning of Our Home and Relief Fund for Old Members. An appropriate lecture was given, and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" beautifully sung by Mrs. Walther of St. Louis.

America, was best of all. Miss Evelyn McCall posing as Liberty and Bob Herring of Dallas, as Uncle Sam. All were asked to join in singing America.

While these tableaux were being shown there was a beautiful lecture with each one. These were most impressively read by Miss Delphya Scott.

Punch wa sserved to each guest as thep passed out by Misses Mattie and Amy Kinard.

YOEMEN LOSE MUD BATTLE TO CALDWELL HORNETS

The light but fighting Yoemen lost another one of their heart breaking games down in Burleson county last week. The rains of the weeks had made the field of the Hornets next to impossible to play on. The The Hornets were able to push over the lone score after Slocomb, Cameron safety man had let the wet and slippery ball go through his arms. Caldwell recovered and on the next play circled the end and carried the ball to the one yard line and four downs to make it in. On the second lunge at the line the ball went over and the goal was kicked which ended the scoring for the afternoon. The Yoemen fought as they never fought before but with the mud ankle deep they could not get their offense to working. The game with Caldwell was the third straight victory for Caldwell. Last year the Hornets beat the Yoemen 2 to 0 here. The Yoemen made 16 first downs while the Hornets made only two but the Yoemen fumbled on their goal line and had to give Caldwell a safety. The Hornets are the favorites for the championship for this district.

MILAM COUNTY COTTON REPORT

F. Ohlenbusch, farmer on Ben Arnold Route 1, was a visitor to the Herald office Wednesday and while here paid his subscription for two years to the big county paper. Mr. Ohlenbusch made 40 bales of cotton on about 90 acres this year. He has held back some 26 bales and will wait for the market to rise. He says he has plenty of corn and feed stuff of all kinds and although having taken a big loss in 1926 and this year raising a good crop that is not saleable, his thrift will carry him through. He has a 224 acre black land farm northeast of Ben Arnold and there lives happily and in plenty with his family.

O, LITTLE CHILD OF BETHLEHEM

By Katherine Edelman

O, LITTLE child of Bethlehem!
Come to the earth today,
Come to a weary, care-filled world
This blessed Christmas Day.

Fill every heart with new-born hope,
Fill every home with cheer,
Bring peace to troubled, burdened souls,
Bring brotherhood more near.

Seek out the weary, worn ones,
The grieved, the hurt, the weak,
And in Thy tender pity bend
A loving word to speak.

Bless those who walked Thy loved ways,
And pity those who strayed,
Bring them within Thy mercy now,
And make them unafraid.

Blot out the hurts and hates and fears
That rent and severed men,
Let understanding's blessed light
Unite their hearts again.

Encircle all the earth with love,
Let holy peace abide,
That all may know in measure full
A happy Christmastide.

INSURGENTS TO HOLD POWER IN CONGRESS

DEMOCRATS MAKE BIG GAINS IN BOTH HOUSES—WIN SEVEN SENATE SEATS

New York, Nov. 3.—These net results stand out from the wreckage of this week's political hurricane:

Republicans hold nominal control of both houses of Congress, the Senate by perhaps two votes and the House by possibility forty instead of the fifty-nine now prevailing.

In the Senate insurgent Republicans will hold the balance of power between the regular Republicans and the Democrats.

In the House they may have it at times, but probably will not be so certain of dominating in emergencies as they will be in the Senate.

Prohibition came through with a mixed verdict. Of the eight referendas held, two went against modification—Colorado and Missouri. Six appear to have gone for modification—New York, Wisconsin, Nevada, Illinois, California and Montana.

New York, Nov. 3—The shadow of an insurgent hand on the control levers of the new Congress took increasing shape on Wednesday night with slowly mounting election returns.

As far as near districts sent in their belated vote the Democratic inroads into the working majorities of the Republicans had reached such proportions that it became certain that the Western insurgents would hold the balance of power in the Senate and possibly in the House.

Besides gaining seven of the nine seats constituting the Republican majority in the Senate, the Democrats reduced by thirteen the present Republican majority of thirty-six in the House.

Capture 2 Governorship

These gains added to the capture of the governorships in two normally Republican states—South Dakota and Colorado—lifted the banner of Democracy to the highest pinnacle it has reached since the Wilson administration was returned to office twelve years ago.

A number of senatorial, congressional and gubernatorial contests still remained to be decided early Wednesday night, with the Republican candidates having the edge in the Senate fights in Indiana, Oregon and California and the Democrats far ahead in Kentucky.

Some close contests also are being furnished in no fewer than two dozen races which still are to be decided, while Democratic governors in two states—Mrs. Nellie Ross in Wyoming, and Governor Hunt in Arizona, are being hard pressed.

Republican insurgents in Congress not only held their own, but they added two new members in the Senate in Smith W. Brookhart of Iowa and John J. Blaine of Wisconsin. With the Republican majority whittled to a bare two or three, this group will hold a strategic position in the Seventieth Congress.

"Abie's Irish Rose" Temple Theatre One Night, November 13

Patrons of the Temple Theatre are promised a laugh a minute in Anne Nichols's exhilarating appealing comedy, "Abie's Irish Rose" of which she is the author as well as producer, and which will be the attraction appearing at the Temple Theatre for one night only, Saturday, November 13th, the management having been fortunate in being able to secure the Detroit and Chicago Company and Production, the organization having recently completed the most extraordinary run of 28 weeks at the Garrick Theatre in Detroit which is unprecedented in the history of theatricals.

"Abie's Irish Rose" is today one of the most widely talked of plays on the stage. It's tremendous success is due entirely to its human appeal and clean wholesome fun, its characters being natural homelike coherent and interesting in witty prose.

Mail orders are now being filled in the orders received if accompanied by remittance. The regular seat sale will open Monday, November 8th at the Crescent Theatre, Temple, Texas.

SCHOLASTICS IN MILAM DECREASE OVER 1925

GOVERNOR SIGNS BILL TO GIVE $14 APPORTIONMENT TO TEXAS CHILDREN

When Governor Miriam A. Ferguson signed the emergency appropriation bill for the school children of Texas increasing the allotment per child to $14 the amounnt assured Milam county is $163,422.

The 1926 census shows a decrease in scholastic population in Milam County of more than 400. It is said this decrease is shown in the rural districts where on account of crop failures many families left the county.

The apportionment has been increased to $14 instead of $11 as was made possible under the education board. The funds came when the legislature passed an emergency vote:

Austin, Nov. 1.—The final compilation of the scholastic census for the year 1926-27, which was taken in March, 1926, shows 597,775 children in the common school districts having more than 150 scholastics, S. M. N. Mars, superintendent of public instruction, announced Monday.

"The total for the state was 1,348,339," he said. "The number of children in the common school districts as shown by the census of March, 1925, was 610,786, and independent districts 729,267, making a total of 1,340,053. By comparison, this shows a gain in the scholastic census over last year of 8286, or about three-tenths of one per cent. It will be noted that the number of children in independent districts has announced why the number in the common school districts has decreased.

"The fact that the increase in the scholastic population is so small is due largely to the care in the preparation of the census rolls this year and the careful checking which was done in the state department of education. The number of duplicates found by checking the rolls was 2741, which would have made the increase practically one per cent. These duplicates, at the rate of $14 each, represents $52,375, which would have been erroneously distributed. The entire amount to be distributed this year is $18,876,736, $3,500,000 of which was appropriated from the general revenue by the special session of the thirty-ninth legislature.

A Good Business Opportunity

If you are a good business man and have experience in the grocery and butcher business, here is a chance for you that is hard to beat. This business will clear $4000.00 or more a year on an investment of around $9000.00, no chance to lose. Safe investment. Your own home and business and with good work will make you independent. Other lines could be added. Investigate this business. A good start and a square deal. 3tp

SOCIETY TABLOID AT COTTON PALACE

Exposition at Waco to Present Sixteen Days of Most Diversified Amusement and Education.

Waco, Texas.—The usual high standard of second week attractions in the coliseum at the Texas Cotton Palace will be greatly augmented this year as special endeavors are being made to excel even the first week attractions, the Thaviu Band and grand opera artists, in interest.

The decision to present each show carded for both the first and second week of the exposition, without charge, is something new in the amusement world, especially in view of the fact that the Thaviu organization is recognized as being composed of outstanding artists of this and other countries. Then in termination, the second week of typical Cotton Palace presentations, including the children's program on Monday night, coronation of the Queen of the 1926 Cotton Palace on Tuesday night, the reception by the king and queen on Wednesday night, and the presentation of the debutantes of Waco and the Southwest, offers a variety of entertainment and display of Southwestern beauty and court splendor, which is destined to be unrivaled, even by previous presentations at the Cotton Palace.

The Wednesday night program really furnishes an opportunity for those unable to witness the coronation to see the king and queen and the royal court, assembled again for the purpose of doing honor to the king and queen of the 1926 Cotton Palace, and to receive in royal fashion the debutantes of the season.

Other coliseum attractions are being formulated for the closing days of the exposition and all these with those above are what the Cotton Palace management has provided as free attractions. Any other coliseum attractions will likewise be free. The person who pays his admission at the front gate is entitled to come and go at will for any and all of the coliseum programs.

Big Second Week Program

Officials for the Greater Cotton Palace of 1926 are concentrating their energy on the program for the second week, which includes the Queen's Coronation, the women's day program, the children's day program, and many other important social attractions; indispensable features which have grown with the exposition. The Queen's Coronation is to be this year bigger and of more outstanding prominence in the way of international distinction than ever before.

Of especial interest in exhibits this year will be the Silver Fox exhibit. The association has secured from the Geneseee Mountain Silver Fox Farm near Denver, Colo., a large number of the Fox family, known as the silver fox, and whose pelts are considered by furriers as the most valuable of fox pelts. The exhibit of these cunning and sleek little animals is expected to attract men, women and children.

Concession space at this year's exposition is already at a premium in view of the excellent year for both business and pleasure, which is just ahead. Manufacturers and jobbers of materials and implements are rushing for space, and in view of the crowded conditions of every available concession space at last year's show, this promises to exceed even the wildest expectations of the officials.

Classical and popular numbers are interspersed in the various band programs Thaviu's musical stars. This famous organization will appear during the entire week of the Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, at Waco, beginning October 23.

In addition to twenty high-class shows, there will appear on amusement row, at the Cotton Palace, Waco, this year, eight thrilling rides and a number of fun houses. Sixteen days, beginning October 23.

YOUTH KILLED ON BRIDGE AT ROCKDALE

William Duett, age 24, an employe of Hewitt & Alexander, drilling contractors in the Rockdale oil field, was the victim of an automobile accident last Sunday evening which cost him his life.

Duett, with other oil field employes, was returning to town from his day's work in the field, and was riding on the fender of a roadster driven by —. —. Taylor. At a point about one mile from town on the Sap Highway, another car attempted to pass the roadster on a narrow culvert, and Taylor's car was crowded into the wooden railing on the side on which Duett was riding. The fender evidently struck the railing, Duett's body receiving the full force of the blow. He was thrown to the ground and another car following found him in the middle of the road, unconscious. Taylor, it seems, did not miss his friend until he had gone several hundred yards, when he turned back.

Duett was brought to town and given first aid by Dr. D. R. Wallis, who immediately pronuounced his injuries very serious and rushed him to the Cameron Hospital. He died about 30 minutes after reaching the hospital.

One of the man's legs was fearfully crushed, he had a long cut on the head, and was apparently internally injured.

Duett was the son of A. T. Duett of the Salty community, where he lived for 15 years before coming to Rockdale to work in the oil field. The funeral was held Monday at Salty cemetery, Elder T. H. Coulter of the Apostolic church, officiating. Further mention of his death and funeral is to be found in our Salty correspondence elsewhere in this issue.—Rockdale Reporter.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL AT THE AGE OF 83

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for 47 years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "stirred up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless, and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 60-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Illinois, for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

THE PLANETARY TRANSMISSION MAKES DRIVING EASIER

THE Planetary Transmission, as used in Ford construction, is the simplest, most direct and most reliable means of speed control for light cars. It costs more to build, but its numerous advantages far outweigh any other consideration. It makes the Ford car more flexible in traffic---with starts, stops and speed changes accomplished faster and more easily. Complete control through foot pedals makes it unnecessary to remove your hands from the steering wheel.

The Ford transmission will stand almost any amount of hard usage; there are almost never any replacements.

Ford economy methods alone make it possible to build this superior transmission into Ford cars, yet keep Ford prices the lowest ever offered.

'It Is Just A Matter of time Until I Will Be Acquitted'--Norris

Tarrant County Criminal Courts Building, Nov. 2.—Tuesday morning thru the News-Tribune it was prognosticated that Rev. J. Frank Norris did not care one whit whether he got a change of venue in his trial on the charge of the murder of Dexter E. Chipps; that the First Baptist church pastor's only desire was to get widespread publicity to the allegations he makes that there exists in Ft. Worth a powerful and influential conspiracy to annihilate him.

It was stated in that prognostication as published Tuesday morning that it was doubtful whether or not could ever find their way into a record of an out-and-out trial of the Norris' charges of this conspiracy murder charge.

All this the fundamentalist admitted this afternoon in a group interview with newspaper men while attorneys on both sides were in conference attempting to reach an agreement on where to send the trial, Judge George E. Hosey having granted the venue change as pleaded for by Norris.

Only Wanted to Show 'Plot'

"It's all over now since the venue change has been granted," said the pastor. "They thought they were going to try me, but it looks like they tried something else.

"The purpose of our filing the application for a venue change was not because we did not want the case tried in Tarrant county. I would have been acquainted here or in any other county. We filed the motion to show that there was a conspiracy against me. Of course, the state will say that we did not prove it, but we alleged it in open court. It's a matter of public record, and it was not denied by witnesses."

The pastor insisted that he was ready for trial any time.

"It's just a matter of time until I will be acquitted," he said.

As forecast late Monday, Judge Hosey came to the conclusion that the case was prejudiced in this county. The venire of 500 was dismissed early Tuesday afternoon, but the crowd lingered to hear what the court had to say on the county where the pastor is to face trial. It was 4:15 when attorneys came from their conference with the statement that they would agree on Travis county. Judge Hosey previously said that he would accept the county picked by the counsel; then the defense objected to Travis.

Meanwhile Norris Jokes

During the parley between the lawyers, Norris, surrounded by reporters and representatives of the nation's largest news gathering agencies, told jokes. He related several incidents that had occurred while he was holding revivals.

"All the newspaper men are not my friends," he said. "Some of them don't like me.

"There is one certain man and he is dead now, and I hope he is in heaven."

"You mean if there is a heaven," interrupted one of the reporters.

"Well, there is a heaven, and you now it. too," Norris replied."

"That calls for a column interview," smiled another news gatherer; "go on with your story."

Norris then related the story of the editor who did not like him.

"He kept taking a crack at me in his columns, and unjustly," said the pastor defendent.

"Finally I got enough. I asked my audience to ask him how long it takes a man dressed in blue pajamas to go down a fire escape in below-zero weather when a husband unexpectedly arrives in town. The folks laughed. The editor left town until after my meeting was over."

Suggests Trial at Waco.

Norris declared that any county in Texas would be agreeable as far as the venue was concerned. McLennan and Wichita counties were discussed at the attorney's conference. Wichita Falls was objected to by the state.

A factional fight might develop at Waco, which would probably interfere with jury selection, the defense attorneys remarked.

To shoot a projectile to the moon it would be necessary for it to have a velocity of seven miles a second. The average big gun can give a speed of only about one one-hundredth of that rate.

B. and P. Women's Club Hold Very Interesting Meeting

The Business and Professional Women's Club held one of the most interesting and delightful meetings of the year last Tuesday evening at the Country Club House at 7:30 o'clvock.

The hall was beautifully decorated with handsome fall roses and ferns, in baskets, vases and bowls. A cherry fire burned in the grate adding warmth and hospitality. Twelve small tables were placed at intervals thruout the hall, laid with white covers with monogram of the club, centered with a vase of beautiful fall roses and queenswreath. Dainty napery and silver completed the tables in an attractive style.

A delightful salad course with hot tea was served in Cafeteria style, the guests and members passing in line to the four tables where the hostesses served their plates with a delicious menu afterward going to the tables where merry conversation helped to pass the hour away.

After the meal the newly elected president, Miss Rose Rischar presided over a session at which time, owing to being pressed for time, Mrs. Kathryn Robbins tendered her resignation as Secretary which was accepted and Miss Carrie Marak was elected to fill her place. The following are the board and committees appointed by the new president:

Executive Board—Misses Rose Rischar, Mary Lake Henderson, Delphyn Scott, Willyne Hyde, Mesdames Katie Robbins, Hubert Hefley, Meta McCown, Bessie Hefley and Kirby Boles.

Finance Committee—Misses Willyne Hyde, Chairman, Helen Horstmann, Viola Marak, Louise Botla, Lucille Butts.

Executive Committee—Mesdames Meta McCown, Chairman, Gussie McGregor, W. A. Copus, R. H. ohnson, Misses Leila Woolley and Bess Marak.

Educational Committee—Miss Mary Lake Henderson, chairman, Mrs. Katie Robbins, and Miss Velma Montgomery.

Membership Committee—Mesdames Hubert Hefley, chairman, Cora Cammer, Misses Minnie Stedman, Jane Caton and Theresa Jensen.

Entertainment Committee—Mrs. Bessie Hefley, chairman, Mesdames H. C. Keith, E. B. Lovick, C. L. Zarosky, Misses Imogene McClarran and Carrie Marak.

Music Committee—Mrs. Bessie Hefley, chairman, and Miss Imogene McClarran.

At the close of the business session the Blue Bird Clee Club, under the direction of Miss Eloize Rogers, gave a delightful program of seven numbers. Miss Rogers has been a star pupil at Baylor College the past 3 years, completing her studies last June. This fall Miss Rogers organized a class of 33 members among the Junior and Senior school students, and under her splendid training has a club equal to any in Central Texas. Several numbers were given in costume in a most attractive manner, revealing splendid talent which had been carefully trained. Miss Rogers is doing a wonderful work and is to be congratulated on her success. At the close of the program of the Gle Club Miss Rogers was presented with an arm bouquet of gold chrysanthemums by Mrs. G. C. Walters who was dressed as a dainty little fairy.

Immediately following the fairy a witch of unknown origin appeared carying a huge pumpkin face and called for the 'Dear Departing President' claiming she had come to help light her way down, presenting the pumpkin to Miss Annie Stallsworth, the retiring president, creating a scream and uproar among the Blue Bird Club who were enjoying a dance at this opportune time. ater Miss Stallworth was presented with a handsome arm bouquet of beautiful red roses and ferns, from the famous Rogers Rose Garden, by Miss Delphya Scott, who spoke of the esteem and love the club had for their past president who had served them so faithfully the past year, after which punch and cake were served.

Mrs. Bessie Hefley was appointed chairman for the next month's meeting with the privilege of selecting her helpers.

Beside club members present there were: Mesdames Frank Monroe, Chas. Peyton, Allen Caldwell, Birdie Davis Walther of St. Louis, Lena Baskin and Miss Elliott.

This was a most enjoyable event where the Halloween spirit was encored and enjoyed throughout. As the guests arrived they were met at the door by Miss Delphya Scott who conducted them down the dark porch where a full grown skeleton ghost was roving meeting them and giving the glad hand which was icy cold.

The club wishes to extend thanks to Miss Jane Caton who was chairman of this month's meeting, and her splendid helpers, and also to Miss Rogers for the beautiful program so well rendered during the evening.

UNFATHOMABLE

WHO can measure the spirit of Christmas—who define it? Born twenty centuries ago beneath the stars, it is neither jollity, contentment, nor conviviality. It is, in part, the sensing of universal brotherhood—the stimulating of good-will to men the world over.

The spirit of Christmas came on the beams of Bethlehem's star, with the accompaniment of the angels' song. While man lives that spirit cannot die.

It should inspire heartier cooperation with every effort of our fellows to achieve; it should be the spark awakening within us that which no creed can define; enabling us to hear the sweet voice of the Babe in the Manger, the firm voice of humble men, and the heartening voice of the Man who, upon the Mount, gave to life its beatitudes. . . . Let us catch the spirit of Christmas.—W. D. Pennypacker.

Remember the Animals When Christmas Comes

AND let us, especially at Christmas, remember that animals are worthy of numbering among our friends and companions, since they were the companions of the Christ child in the lowly stable at Bethlehem. Because they are our friends, we must do all we can to make them happy. This we can do at all times, and at such a special season of gladness let us share with them our joy and happiness. You know how a dog, for instance, can show his happiness and can express his gratitude for kindly attention, and also how, alas, too often, he shows his fear of bad treatment! They can also feel pleasure, and it is only right—just as we hate giving pain to our human friends—that we should avoid anything which may hurt our animal companions.

Let every living thing, if possible, share in the joys of Christmas! Do something to make it a happy time, at least, for every living thing with which you can have anything to do. And by so doing we can all try to make it a season of real loving-kindness to one and all. Let us be determined that every living being with whom we have anything to do—our human friends and our "lower brethren"—shall be, somehow, the happier because of what we—you and I—have been able to do for them. You remember that Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto Me." (Matt. 25:40.)—Our Dumb Animals.

Remember the Needy

Remember the ones whom Santa is likely to forget.

Soup and Nuts Together

A soup of sweet almonds and cream is a Christmas dish in Spain.

Keeping Christmas for a Day; Why Not Always?

ARE you willing to forget what you have done for other people, and to remember what other people have done for you; to ignore what the world owes you, and to think what you owe the world; to put your rights in the background, and your duties in the middle distance, and your chances to do a little more than your duty in the foreground; to see that your fellow-men are just as real as you are, and try to look behind their faces to their hearts, hungry for joy; to own that probably the only good reason for your existence is not what you are going to get out of life, but what you are going to give to life; to close your book of complaints against the management of the universe, and look around you for a place where you can sow a few seeds of happiness—are you willing to do these things, even for a day?—Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and the desires of little children; to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old; to stop asking how much your friends love you, and ask yourself whether you love them enough to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear on their hearts; to try to understand what those who live in the same house with you really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it in front so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open—are you willing to do these things even for a day?—Then you can keep Christmas.

Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death, and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem nineteen hundred years ago is the image and brightness of the Eternal Love?—Then you can keep Christmas.

And if you keep it a day, why not always?—Frank Herbert Sweet.

WORK STARTED ON THORNDALE BATH HOUSE

ANALYSIS OF WATER SHOWS IT TO BE SUPERIOR OF ANY IN THE LONE STAR STATE

Work was begun on Wednesday morning by A. J. Urban and Sons, contractors, assisted by Kenneth Culver, on laying the foundation for the first unit of the bath houses originally planned at the mineral well just east of town on Highway No. 43.

The building now under construction will be 28x28 feet with a bath room on each of two wings on either side, office room, rest room and attendant's room in the center, and gallery, dressing room, etc., with a cooling room at the rear. The bath rooms and other apartments will be thoroughly equipped and furnished and the entire building will be painted white with a green roof, altogether attractive, accommodating and inviting.

The building being constructed is located on the ten acre lot adjoining the well, and when completed Kenneth Culver will move to Thorndale from Rockdale and will put in a stock of confections, cigars, tobaccos, etc., and possibly a filling station and give his personal time and attention to managing the bath house.

The main bath houses and park etc., will be built upon the hill on a ten acre lot owned by the corporation as soon as all of the stock of the corporation is sold, as provided for by the original charter.

No money received from the sale of stock and placed in escow is being used in the work now going on, but the following gentlemen from Rockdale and Thorndale have made it possible to begin the first unit of the enterprise by subscribing approximately $1200 worth of stock and waving the escow provision of the receipt. These men have done a very noble thing, indeed, and they should have the voiced thanks of every citizen of Thorndale and this community for their unselfishness and the public spirited attitude which in this case will stand out as a bright star of hope shining brightly in a wilderness of darkness. Their names should be carved on a slab of stone that in coming years we may refresh our minds with memories of that spirit of men now rapidly vanishing.

These men referred to are—E. A. Camp, Hubert Coffield Jr., W. E. Gaither, D. T. Roundtree, Jimmy Lanning of Rockdale; C. Saller, Ernest Noack and A. J. Urban & Sons of Thorndale, and the publishers of the Champion congratulate these men heartily for the work they are doing.—Thorndale Champion.

SCHILLER MOTOR CO., OPENS BUICK SERVICE STATION IN ROCKDALE

Rockdale is to have a Buick Service Station—in fact, the business is being installed this week.

A. E. Schiller of the Schiller Motor Co., Cameron, who has the Buick franchise for Milam County, has taken a lease from W. E. Gaither on the latter's new service station, opposite the First National Bank, and is now engaged in remodeling same to provide a nice display room for Buick cars.

Mr. Gaither only recently completed remodeling this building (owned by Leo Strelsky), converting it into a modern drive-in service station, fully equipped.

Mr. Schiller will operate it as an authorized Buick Service station and will maintain a fully equipped repair shop in the rear, supervised by Les Talbott, Rockdale mechanic, who has been in the employ of the Cameron station for some time.

The new business will specialize in service for Buick cars, but will also cater to the wants of owners of all other motor cars.

The station is equipped with two modern gasoline pumps and will deal in Texaco products exclusively. Late model Buick cars will be kept on display.

Mr. Schiller stated to our reporter that his growing sales on Buick cars in this section of the county demanded a local service station, and that he also has faith in Rockdale's future and believes there is an opportunity for building a good business in his line.—Rockdale Reporter.

Brushy Bottom Pecans Bring 50c Pound On Market

R. A. (Pat) Doss is now marketing some of the best pecans ever produced in any country. A sample of these pecans shown The Reporter recently were just about the largest, finest specimans we have ever seen. Mr. Doss has been propagating pecans out on his Brushy bottom farm for a long time, some of the trees being planted 16 years ago. We are informed he finds a ready market for these nuts in Galveston at 50 cents per pound.—Rockdale Reporter.

MILAM COUNTY CITIZENS ENCOURAGED BY VISIT TO HIGHWAY DEPARTMENT

C. Saller and G. S. Summerlin from Thorndale, joined by E. A. Camp and W. E. Gaither of Rockdale, County Engineer Mitchell of Cameron, J. C. Abbott and S. M. Patterson of Taylor made a trip to Austin Monday and conferred with the hihgway commission o nmatters concerning the unfinished portion of Highway No. 43 in Brushy Bottom near Thorndale. These men upon their return seemed to feel that their time and trouble in visiting the state Capitol will be rewarded by more active efforts being made by the commission in finishing the work remaining on this important highway. The commissioners of the department agreed with the committee that these unfinished gaps in the highway should and must be closed up at once and that immediate steps will be taken to this end by the highway commission.—Thorndale Champion.

Yes, there will be a parade.

When Lee Bros. Wild Animal Show visits Cameron on Monday, November 8 there will positively be a street parade at 11:00 o'clock in the morning. It is a parade that is different and will not be in any wise similar to parades of the past, Lee Bros. have constantly been gathering material to be used in this year's street parade. Agents have ransacked remote savage lands, artists and designers from studios the world over, mechanics and property builders have been working constantly for a year executing the new ideas presented.

Everything is new and more gorgeous by far than anything of its kind displayed in the past and the effect is dazzling. As this parade excels, so does its performance, and more trained animals are shown than has heretofore been seen under one tent. Animals are made to do seemingly impossible tricks and do things that are really astonishing when taken into consideration that most of them are from the wild forests and there is also a big selection of domestic animals. Dogs, ponies, goats, horses and others in some clever performances.

There is no question as to the difference in the quality and uniqueness of this show. Many heretofore unheard of animals are exhibited and one of the most stupendous and educational spectacles ever seen will be a feature. It i scalled "America, the Land of Peace." It is gorgeous and original and one that will create much enthusiasm and at the same time prove educational.

Two performances are given, rain or shine, and there is little doubt as to the attendance of this wonderful animal entertainment.

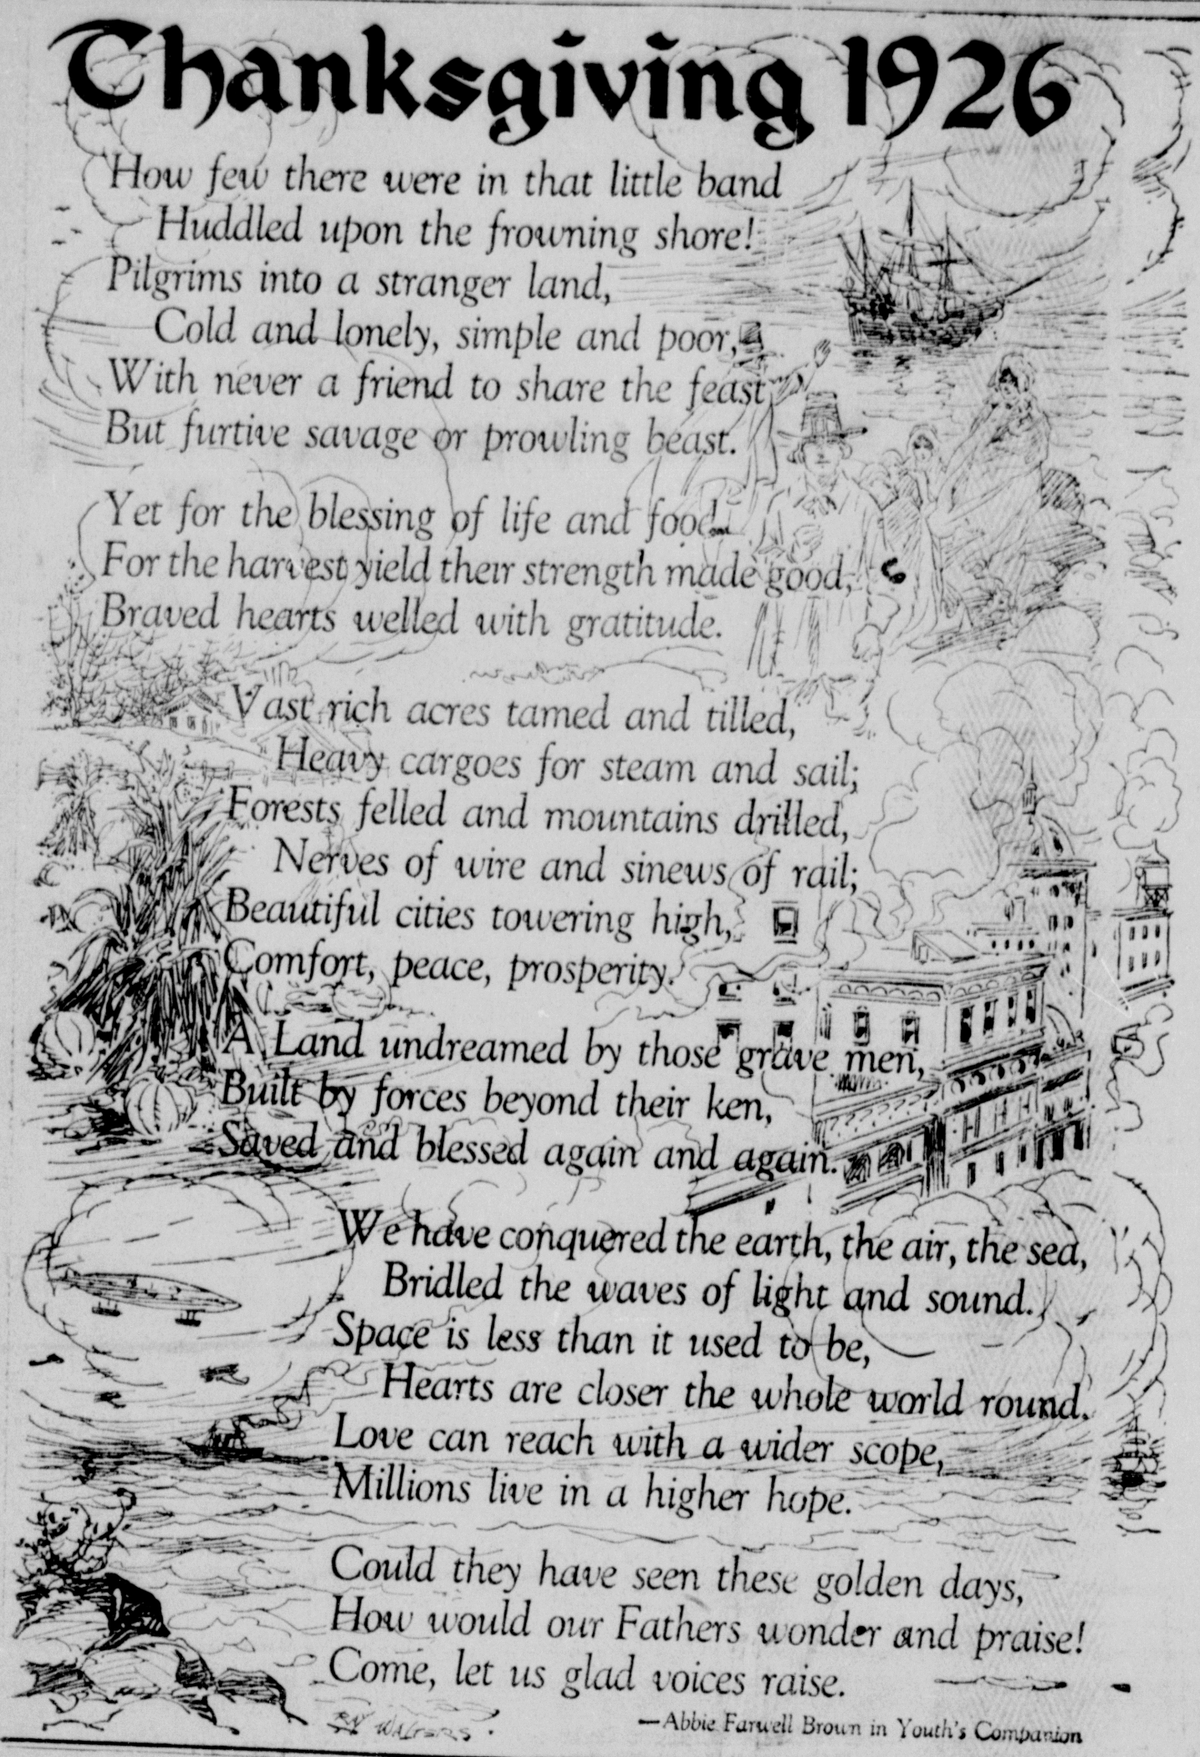
Thanksgiving 1926



How few there were in that little band
Huddled upon the frowning shore!
Pilgrims into a stranger land,
Cold and lonely, simple and poor,
With never a friend to share the feast
But furtive savage or prowling beast.

Yet for the blessing of life and food
For the harvest yield their strength made good,
Braved hearts welled with gratitude.

Vast rich acres tamed and tilled,
Heavy cargoes for steam and sail;
Forests felled and mountains drilled,
Nerves of wire and sinews of rail;
Beautiful cities towering high,
Comfort, peace, prosperity.

A Land undreamed by those grave men,
Built by forces beyond their ken,
Saved and blessed again and again.

We have conquered the earth, the air, the sea,
Bridled the waves of light and sound.
Space is less than it used to be,
Hearts are closer the whole world round.
Love can reach with a wider scope,
Millions live in a higher hope.

Could they have seen these golden days,
How would our Fathers wonder and praise!
Come, let us glad voices raise.

CAMERON AND ROCKDALE TO PLAY NOVEMBER 11

ARMISTICE DAY FOOTBALL TILT TO TEST BOTH TEAMS

On Thursday, November 11, Cameron and Rockdale will meet in a football game for the first time in three years, football activities between the two schools terminating suddenly in the disasterous route of the Tigers in 1923 when they bowed before a mighty Yoemen eleven, 53-0. The rivalry between the two schools is intense and a game between them is always a classic.

The team that wins this game will consider that it has had a very successful season regardless of the outcome of the other games. With all fairness to the Tigers, the Yoemen will be favored to win this game, by a close score to be sure, but that does not alter the fact that they are due to win. However the old dope bucket means nothing whatever in a game of this kind as the best team often loses.

The writer has talked to several Tiger stars and each one says that if the Yoemen do win, which they are inclined to doubt very much, they will think they have tackled a buzz-saw before the game is over.

At 12:00 the student body will meet at the court house and led by the Junior Band will stage a gigantic parade. Immediately after the parade there will be a big barbecue dinner spensored by the American Legion, at the city park.

The student body and all of the Cameron fans who are going to attend the game will then motor to Rockdale and at 1:00 o'clock stage another parade in Rockdale, again led by the Junior Band. At 3:00 the two teams will take the field and those that miss this game will miss one of the most exciting games in Texas on that day.

The Yoemen are determined to win this game but there's a catch to it; the Tigers are just as determined to beat the Yoemen as the Yoemen are to beat Rockdale so that when the smoke clears away there is a possibility of anyone being the winner. Regardless of the outcome of the game however let's go away satisfied. If we win let's be good winners; if we lose, better losers. Don't forget the date: Thursday, November 11 at 3:00 o'clock. Rockdale.

TEXAS DEMOCRATS ARE SECURE IN VICTORY

RETURNS SHOW HAINES BEATEN NEAR 10 TO 1 IN TUESDAY ELECTION

Dallas, Nov. 3.—Returns to the Texas election bureau from 113 out of 252 counties including five complete, follow:

Governor: Moody, 76,337; Haines, 8614.

Prison amendment: For, 27,898. against 12,364.

Soldier amendment: For, 26,649

District amendment: For, 26,214;

Tax amendment: For, 28,452; against, 12,137.

Congress (Fourteenth district): Rogers, 7096; Wurzbach, 8413

Democrats elected their full share to state offices from governor to associate justice of the Supreme Court, although there was republican opposition in every instance, incomplete returns to the Texas election bureau from all sections of the state assure today.

The 17 democratic incumbents in congress were all re-elected, and the state's only republican congressman, Harry M. Wurzbach, of the Fourteenth district, had a lead of 2000 over his democratic opponent, A. D. Rogers, with more votes to be reported.

The state senate democratic victory was complete.

Fifteen vacancies were filled, six of the candidates only having republican opposition which was little felt.

O. L. Kidd, Dorothy and Winnelle Kidd, Mary Frances Blaylock and Frances Smith went to the Cotton Palace Saturday.

RICHARD H. JONES IS BURIED NOVEMBER 1ST

JONES PRAIRIE CONSTABLE IS DEAD AT AGE OF SIXTY-SEVEN YEARS

Funeral services for Richard Houston Jones, constable at Jones Prairie and pioneer citizen of Milam County, were held Monday afternoon, November 1 at 3:30 o'clock in Little River Baptist church where he worshipped for many years.

The body was buried in Little River Cemetery with Green Bros, at Cameron conducting the funeral. Rev. Merrell, pastor of the Calvert Baptist church conducted the services. The funeral was attended by a large number from various portions of the county.

Mr. Jones was born in 1859 and had he lived a few more days he would have completed his 20th year as constable in that community.

He died at the family residence Sunday, October 31 following a long period of declining health. He was a native of Milam County, having been born at Jones Prairie.

Mr. Jones was popular and stood high in the esteem of his fellow officers and the people of the community. He was married to Miss Letitia Bailey and to them were born twelve children, ten of whom with his faithful wife, survive him.

He was converted to the Baptist faith at the age of 42 years and had since that time lived faithfully as a member of the church.

He was a Mason and the Little River Masonic Lodge had charge of the funeral at the grave.

The death of Mr. Jones came as a shock to his many friends. They had known and loved him for his many good qualities.

The Herald extends its sympathy to the bereaved family in their sad loss.

DR. EPPERSON RETURNS FROM HEALTH MEETING HELD IN FT. WORTH

Dr. A. S. Epperson, city health officer, has returned from Ft. Worth where he spent four days attending the meeting of Texas Sanitarians.

Dr. Epperson went to the meeting for the purpose of making application of better sanitary methods in the city of Cameron. He reports a splendid time and a good program engaged in by prominent health officials from many sections of the state.

The conference was given over largely to the discussion of the milk, water and food supplies, three major fields for sanitary service.

Dr. Epperson has been doing good work here and expects to have a better sanitary campaign in the city in 1927.

WHY GOVERNMENT PRICE FIXING WON'T WORK

One of the most persistent fallacies is government price-fixing on competitive commodities. There is already government price-fixing in commodities and services where competition plays no part in price determination. These are railway transportation, electricity, gas, telephone and telegraph, and so on. Here government price-fixing is solely to protect the consumer. There are two fatal objections to government price-fixing for agricultural products, which represent the most competitive business in the world. These are, first, that it will not work; second, that it is always done for the consumer as against the producer.

Government price-fixing for agricultural products would work if at the same time the government regulated wages, profits, middlemen's margins, the production of all commodities and the rationing of all consumers. In short, if the population were enlisted in one vast army, directed and rationed, price-fixing would work, but otherwise not. If the price is fixed on the wheat the farmer sells, then he cannot keep on producing wheat if wages or the cost of harvesting machinery rise, or if the cost of other material he buys rises. So the next step would be the fixation of other prices, and yet other prices.

The United States government fixed the price of wheat but once in our history, and then it was to benefit consumers, not producers. The government might, in an emergency, fix some agricultural prices for the purpose of elevating such prices. Such action would inevitably and speedily lead to outcry from city consumers and a consequent reversal of policy. Indeed, the consumers, not the producers, are most likely to demand and secure food price regulation by government authorities. The farmer, therefore, who favors any form of governmental price-fixing is working against his own interests. He is putting his head into a noose.—James E. Boyle, Professor of Rural Economics, Cornell University, in the Banker-Farmer.

"My mother had been a user of Black-Draught for years, so while I was at home, visiting, she asked me why I did not try Black-Draught for my troubles.

"I began taking a small dose, three times a day, before meals. I kept this up for several weeks, and it was just a little while before I began to notice an improvement in my condition.

AGRICULTURE TO BE FOREMOST EXHIBIT

Cotton Palace at Waco Plans Extra Space for Greater Farm Display Than Ever Before.

Waco, Texas.—Arrangements are being made for the most extensive agricultural exhibits at this year's Texas Cotton Palace Exposition, at Waco, that has ever been attempted by the officials of this institution.

So great are the plans that it is predicted the agricultural building will be taxed to its capacity to house the varied exhibits coming from all over Texas and from other states.

The United States Department of Agriculture is sending a mammoth exhibit, said to be the most comprehensive ever assembled. Naturally this exhibit embraces products of the soil from practically every state in the union, together with the improved methods of farming as developed by the research section of the department. Much good has been accomplished along educational lines by the department in spreading the gospel of correct farming throughout the nation by reason of its agricultural exhibits, which has resulted in assembling for this year the largest and most varied collection of products ever before attempted. Experts are to appear at the Cotton Palace with the exhibit, who will take great pleasure in explaining to all visitors the last word in agricultural development, as assembled by the department.

The Texas agricultural exhibit will be the most extensive in the history of the Cotton Palace, with more individual county exhibits than in any past year. West, East, North, Central and South Texas will vie one with the other for supremacy in their exhibits at the Cotton Palace. The West Texas exhibit is being assembled under the direction of Homer D. Wade of Stamford, manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, while East Texas is being looked after by W. N. Blanton of Longview, manager of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce. Both sections have had an unusually favorable year, with the best crops in many years. With the strictly agricultural products will come immense fruit exhibits, the quality of which is said to be far superior this year to that of any previous season.

In North, South and Central Texas counties, Chambers of Commerce have interested themselves in county exhibits, while the A. & M. College exhibit, always interesting and of great educational value, will be enlarged to cover the various agricultural activities at the college.

All in all, the agricultural exhibits at this year's Cotton Palace, beginning Oct 23, will be something worth while to see.

Now the patrons of the Texas Cotton Palace, at Waco, will have a chance to study evolution at home by studying a chimpanzee in person. Barney, the Second, one of the almost-human animals, will be a stellar attraction on the Warpath. He probably wil be the last of his kind to come to America. His home is in the French and Belgian Congo section of Africa.

The Texas Cotton Palace, at Waco, offers this year a most remarkable free program, including eight presentations of grand opera, eight band concerts, interspersed with special instrumental and vocal numbers. All are by the famous Thaviu organization, and each and every coliseum program will be free to all persons who pay the regular admission price at the front gate.

On the Warpath at the Texas Cotton Palace, at Waco, this year, will be five distinct headliners in Frank Lentini, famous three-legged man; Kitty Kelly; Barney, the second, almost human chimpanzee; Betty Fay and her diving models; and an up-to-date three ring wild animal circus. All of these are with the famous Wortham Shows, which will be the amusement row attraction.

THE SPORT BOWL

BY FRANK V. MONDRIK

In one of the most thrilling football battles ever fought on the Memorial Stadium grounds, the Texas Longhorns were defeated by a narrow margin and luck, or, as some would have it, the breaks of the game. The brilliant offensive thrusts of the Longhorn backfield forced the heavy Mustang invaders to trial the Texas University team for three quarters and ten minutes. A long pass in the last five minutes of play put the Ponies only three points behind the fighting Texas Steers. As darkness fell over the stadium, Gerald Mann scooped up a Texas fumble and raced 25 yards through a clever field for a touchdown. With three minutes left to play, the Steers battled desperately to overcome the S. M. U. lead which was enough to win the game.

Both teams played a spectacular brand of football, but the Longhorns outfought the heavy Mustangs and almost beat them at their own game with a series of beautifully executed passes.

On the very first play, a delayed double pass, Saxon to Stallter to Ford, the Longhorns gained a touchdown. The play took the Ponies completely by surprise and the secondary defense off guard as Ford raced 50 yards for a touchdown.

Smashing and tearing through the Blue line of the Mustangs, Rufus King with his consistent gains and bang-up game, made a bid for all conference honors. Saxon was easily the defensive star of the fray, backing up the line better in every department of the game than Cortemeglia, the "Wonderful Wop". Saxon's passing featured the game, outclassing the famous King to Saxon combination, and developing the Saxon to Ford duet.

Gerald Mann was the star of the Blue invaders with his passing and his tricky broken field running. Hume was hard to stop on end runs and on open field plays, and his punting was far above the average.

Baylor, in one of the most sensational upsets in years, outfought the Texas Aggies and trounched them by a heavy score. The Baylor Bears with little Weir Washam and Captain Morris as the dashing offensive threats, brushed aside the highly touted Aggie defense and crashed to a stunning and hard fought victory. Joel Hunt was the Aggie's ace, but he was a marked man and did not get a chance to equal his spectacular running attack that he flashed in the S. M. U. tilt last Saturday.

The decisive defeat handed to the Aggies by the Bears makes the coming clash between the Bruins and the Steers almost an even bet. Texas U. holds a slight edge, but the Longhorns are playing on Bear territory which is a decided advantage to the home team. Both teams have shown powerful offenses, and it is likely that there will be more than two or three touchdowns scored in the game.

The Arkansas Razorbacks are sailing through on an easy schedule, and if they win the Conference flag, it will be only the fault of the other Conference teams, for they refused to go to the Razorback's lair to play. T. C. U. will have to trounch the Arkansas aggregation in order to give the other Conference members a clear title to the flag.

The Longhorn Harriers came thru in fine style Saturday morning and won a decisive victory over the S. M. U. team. Green, former Yoe Hi star, ran in great form, placing fourth. With two more years before him, he should mage a valuable addition to the Longhorn team.

Until recently the Seris, a savage tribe of Indians on an island off the coast of Sonora, Mexico, had defied the white race since 1536, when Alvar Nuez Cabeza de Varna, a Spanish military explorer, described them as a tribe living on 'powdered straw and raw meat.' The remnants of the once powerful tribe are now glad to earn a few pesos by guiding hunters and fishermen.

EGOTISM

By Frang V. Mondrik

I believe in self esteem, that much trampled characteristic of the human race which the critics erroneously term a vulgarity and a lacg of culture. Modesty is only a cloak, a sham behind which we hide ourselves to camouflage our true inner thoughts. Egotism is universal, and the cloaking of it will hide it from the world's eyes, but inside, it lives. Modesty is so common that it has ceased to be a virtue and has assumed the proportions of a veil behind which we hide our true selves. The paucity of egotism makes modesty all the more common, and the lauding of one's virtues is looked upon as a banality in this era of highly developed civilizaton.

Why should we hide behind the cloak of modesty? Is it because we fear the ridicule of our fellow neighbors, the breaking of long standing conventionalities. It is indeed true that too much egotism is the ruination of man, but it is not my idea to plunge to either extreme. A certain amount of self esteem breeds confidence and makes sham a nil particle in our characters. And so I shall not accredit myself with any degree of modesty, for we all are egotistic to a certain extent. I shall not slight my latent thoughts or my talents behind the thin veneer of sham. It is true that egotism is a case of utter frankness or of rank hypocrisy as perhaps is mine.

If you substract forty from the number of cricket chirps a minute and divide the remainder by four and add fifty to the result, you will be able to tell the temperature without a thermometer. This is known as the Dolbear formula.

The Prince of Wales recently surprised England by personally paying a supper bill. Custom has it that royal persoanges rarely handle money except to scatter largess. The money King Edward carried was always scrubbed and polished before he touched it.

The face value today of the thirty pieces of silver mentioned in the Bible is about $22.50.

SOCIETY NEWS

SURPRISE PARTY

On last Wednesday morning, Mrs. J. S. Bradford entertained the members of the Loyal Woman's Council at her home honoring Mrs. W. H. noon for Houston to visit her daughter Tucker, who left Wednesday after- Mrs. John Chartrand. Mrs. Bradford presented her a pumpkin which contained a handkerchief from each guest.

The hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Morgan, served hot coffee, hot chocolate and cake.

This lovely party was a complete surprise to Mrs. Tucker and she expressed her appreciation profusely for the kindness shown her by the members of the society.

HALLOWEEN PARTY

On last Saturday evening Misses Verdie and Eva Davis entertained with a Halloween party at the home of their mother, Mrs. Lula Davis, on S. Crockett Avenue. The Halloween festival was made memorable by the features of this party which combined all the spooky season in entertainment and decorated lights lent the colors of orange and black which were in evidence all through the evening. Maspuerade dancing, music, songs, and clever stunts afforded fun for the merry guests. Miss Eva Davis, dressed as a witch, told fortunes.

Everywhere black cats, Jack O'Lanterns and ghosts were seen. These charming hostesses were assisted by their mother, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Hairston and Mrs. Joe Nevins in entertainment.

Candy, nuts and tea were served in ghostly style.

The party was over at a late hour and each guest declared they had the best time ever.

BAPTIST W. M. U.

The Baptist W. M. U. met at the church Monday afternoon for a business meeting. On account of the weather, there were only seventeen present and very little business was dispensed with. After a short session of business, circle No. 1 served sandwiches and hot tea.

The meeting will be held next Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in circles for Bible study as follows: Circle one with Mrs. Jack Andrews, Circle two with Mrs. Wm. Henderson, Circle three with Mrs. Joe Denson and Circle four with Mrs. Bertha Brewer.

LOYAL WOMAN'S COUNCIL

On account of the weather and illness among members, the Loyal Woman's Council held no meeting Monday afternoon. They will meet next Monday afternoon at the church.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The Methodist Missionary Society met at the church Monday afternoon at 3:30 for a business meeting. A week of prayer will be observed beginning November 8th running thru Nov. 11th, ending with an Armistice Day program at 11 o'clock at the Methodist church. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

The following officers were elected for 1927: President, Mrs. R. L. Batte; Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. O. Triggs; Recording Secretary, Mrs. G. C. White; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Leland Green; Treasurer, Mrs. W. I. Clark; Local Treasurer, Mrs. J. S. Bragg; Superintendent of Study, Mrs. Henry Davis; Superintendent of Publicity, Mrs. C. E. Porterfield. Superintendent of Supplies, Miss Mollie Moore; Agent for Missionary Voice, Mrs. R. A. Tag.

A very interesting Mission Study lesson was taught by Mrs. W. O. Triggs and Mrs. R. L. Batte. Mrs. F. R. Duhlap rendered a solo, "Footsteps of Jesus." The meeting was concluded with a prayer by Mrs. W. H. Triggs.

BUILDER'S CLASS PARTY

On last Friday evening Mrs. G. C. Walters was hostess to the Builders Class of the Christian church at her attractive home on East Twenty-third Street. The house was very effectively decorated with black cats, witches, ghosts and Jack O'Lanterns. The lights in the reception rooms were covered with yellow and black paper, all together making an ideal Hallowe'en scene. Every guest was masqued and upon their arrival they were greeted by Miss Annie Woolley, as a ghost, and escorted through Spookland. Mrs. Birdie Walther, dressed as a Japanese girl told fortunes to each one present. Games of various kinds were enjoyed throughout the evening. Ice cream, shaped as pumpkins, and cake were served in conclusion. Those present at this delightful party were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Garner, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Bradford, Mrs. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Burke, Mr. Shimeall and his mother, Mrs. Copus, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Eplen, Morris Eplen, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howell and little daughter, Eleanor, Miss Annie Woolley and Mrs. Birdie Walther.

Pie crust made with Snowdrift is rich, tender and flaky.

Good pie crust should be put together quickly and should not be overworked. That is one reason why Snowdrift makes such good pastry. It is so creamy that it is quickly and easily worked into the other ingredients.

Another reason is that Snowdrift is so good itself.

Texas Lady Tells How She Got Rid of Her Troubles.

"The first time I took Cardui, I was in an awful bad way," says Mrs. Ora Carlile, R. F. D. 5, Troup, Texas.

"I was afflicted with awful smothering spells. My mother had some Cardui in the house that she was taking, so she immediately began giving it to me. In a few days I got all right.

"Last fall I got run-down in health. I was weak and puny and I began to suffer with . . . I would get so I could hardly walk. Having taken Cardui before, I sent to the store for a bottle of it.

"Almost from the first dose I could feel the improvement. . . . I am much better now.

"Cardui has helped me a lot and I am glad to recommend it. I don't feel like the same woman I was last fall.

"My appetite is good now, and I'm sure it's Cardui that's made it pick up, for in the fall I had no relish for food at all, while now I'm hungry for my meals."

TRIAL OF NORRIS TO BE HELD AT AUSTIN

COULDN'T GET FAIR TRIAL IN FORT WORTH DEFENSE CLAIMS

Ft. Worth, Nov. 2.—Ft. Worth today lost the murder trial of its leading fundamentalist pastor. Judge George Hosey of criminal district court, after hearing about twenty witnesses testify that Norris could not obtain a fair and impartial trial on the indictment charging him with the murder of Dexter Elliott Chipps, decided to grant the pastor a change of venue. He selected Austin, the Texas captal, for the trial city.

Some of the witnesses said they had heard men express the belief that Norris' neck should be broken, that he should be shot, and that he should be hanged, and the testimony of the mayor of Fort Worth, H. C. Meacham, that he had hired special prosecutors at a $15,000 fee to prosecute Norris for killing his friend Chipps, was considered to have no little weight with the judge.

Judge Refuses Prosecution

No evidence was heard on Norris' allegation that "a combination" of politics and religion, of the city administration and Roman Catholics, had been created to prosecute him, all of the testimony going to the question of alleged widespread fixed opinions in the case. The judge announced after noon recess that the defense had established its case on the change of venue and that he didn't wish to hear any more evidence on the question. Prosecution attorneys vigorously protested that they should be heard on the "combination" charge, and intimated that they wished to defend Mayor Meacham and the citizenship of Tarrant County as they stated the impression had been left that the citizenship was not fairminded, but the judge declined to reverse his stand.

The question of where the case should be sent then became a knotty problem. The attorneys announced at one time that they had agreed on Austin, the state capital, but when it developed that District attorney Hanger had not been a party to this agreement, and that he wanted a more populous county, the agreement was withdrawn by prosecution attorneys.

Hanger pointed out, however, that since his term expires January 1, and it is probable the case can not come to trial before that date no personal desires influenced his judgment. He believed the case was of such magnitude and interest that the facilities of a larger city would be needed.

Judge Hosey said he did not want to send it to San Antonio because of the large Catholic population there which might be an injustice to Norris, and that he had heard that Norris had experienced trouble in Dallas and Houston and that he would rather select some other place.

Many Cities Considered

Attorneys consumed hours following the judge's announcement in arguing relative merits of Texas cities. Almost every town in the State was mentioned in conference and in the court room.

The date of the trial in Austin is unknown, as the case must be set by the criminal court there. Mr. Hanger said he thought it would be set for the January term. The only step now is to transfer the papers to the Austin court and certify that the change of venue has been placed in that county.

Dr. Norris was elated at the turn of the case, characterizing his application for change of venue as "a bombshell to the prosecution and declaring that the state "now hasn't a leg to stand on. The case is all over." He said any county but Tarrant would suit him.

One of the weighty considerations in the judge's decision was the response of the court room of prospective jurors to the judge's question as to how many of them had formed opinions. About 80 per cent of the veniremen help up their hands, and when the judge asked how many did not have a fixed opinion only a few put up their hands.

GREAT YEARS IN THE NATION'S HISTORY

Interesting things have happened in 1926. Commander Byrd in a Fokker airplane, circled the North Pole. Photographs taken in Europe were transmitted on radio waves to America, and published in newspapers a few hours later. Gertrude Ederle, daughter of a New York butcher, swam the English Channel one hour faster than any of the five men who had swum it before her.

Is anything interesting going to happen in 1927?

For one thing, the Youth's Companion on April 16, will celebrate its HUNDREDTH BIRTHDAY. Keep in Trim!

Good Elimination Is Essential to Good Health.

THE kidneys are the blood filters. If they fail to function properly there is apt to be a retention of toxic poisons in the blood. A dull, languid feeling and, sometimes, toxic backaches, headaches, and dizziness are symptoms of this condition. Further evidence of improper kidney function is often found in burning or scanty passage of secretions. Each year more and more people are learning the value of Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, in this condition. Scarcely a nook or hamlet anywhere but has many enthusiastic users. Ask your neighbor!
